

The Prayer for Love

God, divine creator of all that is, of infinite power and organisation, of limitless unconditional love shared with all;

Please protect me from evil and forgive me for my human errors.

Please teach me to:-

know that all I need is already deep within me;
know that challenges I face are for a reason and can be precious lessons;
be grateful for the gift of life, health and happiness;
be fair and share;
be gentle, truthful and fearless;
be patient, tolerant and non-judgmental;
be loving and compassionate to all life;
be at peace with all life and in harmony with the environment;
respect everything, knowing it is interconnected as one.

Please teach me to become a pure divine being of unconditional love, so I can join you in the still silent heavenly place of love.

God is Love
